In Sweden's migrant ghettos, this is what £890 buys you.

The grenades — dubbed 'apples' by criminals — are smuggled into the country from former Yugoslavia. They are plentiful in the black market for weapons after the wars in the Balkans and are sold cheaply, or even handed out as freebies upon purchase of assault rifles. Stockholm police recently put a figure on it: less than £890 can buy you five automatic weapons and ammunition with 64 hand grenades as a sweetener. The grenades can, of course, be sold on. The street price in Sweden is about £100.

That, too, may be changing. In the past weeks, children in the well-off Stockholm suburb of Nacka have been victims of robberies by masked gangs who are suspected of travelling from other parts of the city. Children as young as nine have been robbed at knifepoint. The outrage that followed the robberies in Nacka also serves as a reminder of how deeply divided Swedish society has

He stopped a terrorist. And he's now starring in a blockbuster movie about it.

But yeah, keep banging on about your comic book guy and calling anyone who isn't a fan of Black Panther a racist.

The @WSJ won't rest until YouTube is expunged of all interesting commentary, to be replaced with their own geriatric, boring, droning "hot takes" which all sound the same.

The Internet became so enjoyable precisely because it's wacky and unpredictable.

Stop killing fun.

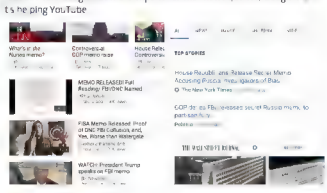
There is another way YouTube's parent, Google, consistently surfaces mainstream sources in search results. Here were the results to a search Friday for "fbi memo" on both sites.

YouTube said Google has more experience with news queries. Google said it's helping YouTube.



11 9 19

Jack Nicas @jacknicas · Feb 7

The Guardian has done good work on this topic, too. On Friday it said YouTube promoted disinformation ahead of the 2016 election & that its recommendations more frequently supported Trump. YouTube disputes the Trump finding but said it has "work to do."

You're the guy who smeared PewDiePie, a mild mannered Swedish video gamer, as an actual Nazi.

This is why your publication, the Wall Street Journal, is bleeding subscribers.

This is why people despise the media.

This is why everyone is turning to YouTubers for their info.

But really though it's hard to watch mainstream media they will talk about something so insignificant from an "anonymous" source for days, but a YouTuber will make a 10 minute video put their sources out there make a sound argument and include their opinion without being biased

"a YouTuber will make a 10 minute video put their sources out there make a sound argument and include their opinion without being biased"
You obviously haven't watched Paul and Alex's fact free, unsourced videos

Quest @Quest_ · Feb 7

Evidently you haven't tuned in. They literally list their sources and hold up articles (or videos) they are referencing. They even challenge you to dispute it and allow you to call in to do so. Let's see CNN do that.

1 11

Stephen Redmayne @StephenRedmayne · Feb 7

I have tuned in, they make it all up. And use uninformed unchecked resources.
It's agenda read disinformation

Quest @Quest_ · Feb 7

Lets get something clear, it doesn't matter where you get your news it is ALL agenda driven. Alex and crew makes their agenda clear. Unlike CNN. What specifically are you peeved about? The fact he accurately called the election? Or the fact he calls out the left constantly?

2 11

Stephen Redmayne @StephenRedmayne · Feb 7

"it is ALL agenda driven"
No many news sites simply report factual news and separate that(clearly) from opinion and comment.
" Alex and crew make their agenda clear"
At least 95% of what Infowars broadcasts is pure fiction and conspiracy theories.

Quest @Quest_ · Feb 7

Your naivety is shocking. Everyone has an opinion and everyone who makes news will bleed their opinion into their work. It happens. Objective journalism has been dead for years.

Alright, since you're such an expert. Make a few videos debunking him and see how well they do.

Even if a user has only watched clips from relatively mainstream news sources, like Fox News or MSNBC, we found YouTube then consistently promotes divisive clips from fringe channels.

VICE, You may not be racist, homophobic or anti-Semitic, but you're still "Alt Right," because this is the only tactic our pigeon brains can come up with to demonise you pic.twitter.com/[illegible]

EE 20:06 48%
thump.vice.com

Fashwave has become propaganda for the neo-fascist movement known as the "alt-right," a term that originated on America's far-right fringe in the early 2010s. Proponents of the loosely configured movement tend to reject "political correctness," trade, immigration, Islam, feminism, the left, "globalism," and establishment conservatism—which are also more or less the targets of Trump and, after his takeover, much of the Republican Party. Like fascism through the decades, the alt-right is shot through with contradictions; many of its followers disavow racism, homophobia, and anti-Semitism. But its underlying motive is still that of the fringe from which it sprang: white ethno-nationalism and authoritarianism.

Late to it, but so bloody pleased about this year's Victorian premier's literary awards winners. All women — amongst them, many women of colour and queer writers.
theguardian.com/books/2018/feb (by @stephharmon)

Lucy the Elvish Librarian @thingslucyreads · 18h
Hi Ben, they're actually not all women. Alison Evans is nonbinary. It's better and also more accurate to say that none of the award winners are men.

N.B. Apologies — as many have pointed out, I should've phrased that as "no winners were men"

Wasn't aware one of the winners identified as non-binary, and that's absolutely on me. Thanks for the pick-ups, and apologies/congrats to @_budgie again. Will do better next time.

BBC wants me to partake in a show involving a hysterical far-left comedian.

And I'm sure the edit will be very fair.

Do you think I was born yesterday?

No. It's live or nothing.

Stop asking otherwise, you're wasting my time.

We've just started production on a four part political / current affairs series for BBC1. This unique series aims to demystify politics and recent political debates, by offering a platform for the most relevant voices within current debates.

This unique series is authored by the talented and passionate comedian Luisa Omielan, who has recently become more politicised due the death of her mother.

Within each of the episodes will be a segment wherein Luisa has dinner with a renowned journalist, whereby they chat about anything and everything. I'm writing to ask if you would you consider having dinner with Luisa?

Just to highlight - these are not interviews, as Luisa isn't an interviewer. Luisa has specifically requested that we note this - I am aware of your views towards the BBC, however, I do stress that this isn't an interview.

Would you be free at all today or tomorrow, for me to explain further? It may be a tad easier to explain on the phone.

Hope to hear from you soon.

SJW's are not logical strategic thinkers. In emotional thinkers, both SPECT and PET scans show lower activity in the prefrontal cortex where logic and reasoning take place and high activity in the limbic region, emotions. Just look at the FBI/CIA, alleged intelligence

People who are obsessed w/ political correctness fall into two categories. first are those who recognize that guilt can be used as a means to power (cynical politics), the second are those who have yet to face & conquer their inner prejudices & redirect their guilt as outrage

Michael Moore calling for America to be "cleansed" of white privilege and him celebrating the demographic death of white people is a dog whistle to the Alt-Right.

The Alt-Left and the Alt-Right need each other.

Why did they nominate a performer who literally rapped about 'raping a pregnant b*tch'?

Why did they award an artist who literally referred to women in his latest album as "rats, ho's & bitches"?

Natural disasters

These killed 9,066 people in the world in 2017 fewer than any year since 1979. From 2008 to 2017 an average 72,020 died in such disasters. Fifty years earlier (the period 1958-67) the average was 373,453

Life expectancy

The current lowest in the world is the Central African Republic with 51.4 years. To put that into perspective, in 1800 Belgium had the highest at just 40 years. Average life expectancy changes in Africa since 1955

YEAR	AGE	YEAR	AGE
1955	38.7	1995	51.9
1965	43.4	2005	55.1
1975	47.6	2015	61.4
1985	51.2

Hunger

The number of people in the world classed as undernourished fell from 1.01 billion in 1990 to 815 million in 2016. This is despite the world's population growing from 5.4 billion to 7.4 billion in the meantime

In the old left versus right world, both sides essentially accepted that the other would win power occasionally. But now we have a centrist establishment in Europe that does not really accept the right of its challengers to come to power. And when they do, it casts them as being illegitimate, or extremists, and seeks to use supranational legal and political powers to constrain or oust them. But this has not so far worked, given how few voters in the offending [illegible] wish to back down. Brexit Britain [illegible] up watching from the sidelines, but [illegible]ew battle for Europe has begun.

He had a lot of feminist-identifying female friends and spoke openly about progressive politics and racial justice something I really liked about him. In his own words, he was "pretty woke." A Stanford University study found that "fake news" had no influence on the US election.

Much like "post-truth world," fake news is a contrived moral panic created by elites to deflect from the fact they are increasingly unable to manufacture consent.

You could be being controlled by 'Russian bots' without even knowing it! Or @RepAdamSchiff is having yet another delusional fever dream.

You decide.

G | M | F Our Organization Our Work Our Events Our Experts

The dashboard monitors the activities of 600 Twitter accounts linked to Russian influence efforts online. Accounts were selected for their clear connection to Russian influence, but not all of the accounts are directly controlled by Russia. The method is focused on understanding the behavior of the aggregate network, rather than the behavior of individual users.

The set includes samples from three different networks:

- A network derived from openly pro-Russian users.
- A network derived from users who tweeted as part of a disinformation campaign linked to openly state-funded Russian media.
- A network of accounts that engage in automated behavior (bots) on behalf of other accounts reflecting Russian messaging priorities.

The set includes the following types of users:

- Accounts likely controlled by Russian government influence operations.
- Accounts for 'political' pro-Russia users that are loosely connected or unconnected to the Russian government, but which amplify themes promoted by Russian government media.
- Accounts for users who have been influenced by the first two groups and who are extremely active in amplifying Russian media themes. These users may or may not understand themselves to be part of a pro-Russian social network.

For hours, it was reported the messages were direct from Robinson. Total fake news which implied he had directly communicated with a terrorist.

The media tries to tear apart people's lives on a daily basis on a whim.

Full retraction and apology needed.

So this Daily Beast reporter is now knocking on people's doors in a rural village where I used to live to try to find people I went to school with. Presumably, he has got hold of old address and school records. Creepy. Stalkerish. Bizarre.

Laura Ingraham could be forced to resign over a tweet in which she said Hogg was being whiny Will David Hogg face any consequences for celebrating the deaths of over a million people a year or will the mainstream media completely ignore this story?

Considering that mosquito-borne diseases are epidemic in Africa, Asia, and South America, this is an extremely racist sentiment. David Hogg needs to disavow this overt racism

Morbidity and Mortality Weekly Report (MMWR)

Announcement: World Malaria Day — April 25, 2017

Weekly / April 21, 2017 / 66(15);412

View suggested citation

World Malaria Day is commemorated each year on April 25, the date in 2000 when leaders of 44 African nations met in Abuja, Nigeria, and committed their countries to reducing the number of malaria-related deaths. Approximately 90% of all malaria deaths occur in Africa (1). During the last 15 years, donors have collectively supported the procurement and distribution of billions of insecticide-treated bed nets and courses of artemisinin-based combination therapy globally. These improvements in malaria control are estimated to have saved an estimated 6.8 million lives, mostly among children aged <5 years. From 2010 to 2015, the World Health Organization (WHO) reported that the estimated number of malaria deaths worldwide declined by approximately 60%, including a 69% decline among children aged <5 years (1). This year, as in 2016, the theme of World Malaria Day is "End Malaria for Good," reflecting the increased interest in and commitment to eliminating malaria.

US, France, Saudis, UK all preparing air strikes.

Multiple warships steaming towards Syria.

Russia threatening to retaliate.

Yeah but that Stormy Daniels, though.

No one seems to give a shit and it's bizarre.

Numerous different countries are preparing to air strike Syria.

Russia has vowed to retaliate.

World wars have started on lesser pretexts.

And all anyone is talking about is Stormy Daniels & Mueller's investigation.

WTF is going on?

Oh my mistake, they ditched all that to obsess about gender pronouns, mythical gender pay gaps & hating white people.

#Jingoism rules #America [illegible]

Jingoism

- Extreme patriotism in the form of aggressive foreign policy. In practice, it is a country's advocation of the use of threats or actual force against other countries in order to safeguard what it perceives as its national interests.
- In 1898, this sense of aggressive nationalism was fueled by America's hurt pride over an insulting letter written by the Spanish Ambassador (Dupuy de Lome), which called President McKinley "weak and stupid" and which was leaked to the press by Cuban rebels (and published by Hearst in the Journal).

The reason for the Seria attack is much deeper than simple intervention It is a small piece of an overall strategy concerning Russia and Iran But, questioning, scratch that, rejecting any form of globalization is a must. It will emasculate, mongrelize and bankrupt us

Let us not forget that the primary person to blame for the surge in violent crime in London is Theresa May. Stop and search was reduced under her purview because of concerns over "racism".

Washington Post wins Pulitzer for its reporting on 'Russian interference' despite publishing a completely fake story about Russia interfering with the US electrical grid. 🍼

Russian operation hacked a Vermont utility, showing risk to U.S. electrical grid security, officials say

Editor's Note: An earlier version of this story, incorrectly said that Russian hackers had penetrated the U.S. electric grid. Authorities say there is no indication of that so far. The computer at Burlington Electric that was hacked was not attached to the grid.

Not content with making everything new in the culture anodyne, sterile, and boring, the left now wants to ban old songs because the lyrics are politically incorrect.

Yes, really.

I don't think there is any classic music that can touch the offensive lyrics of modern rap and hip hop. Totally degrading to women, pure hatred for authority. If you respond to this tweet, be prepared for me to ask you for an example of a classic song that is as offensive

Why is this CNN reporter sniffing chemical weapons?

I'd be a little concerned about inhaling chemical weapons.

Also, how can she smell them when CNN itself reported that sarin was used in the attack? Sarin is odorless.

My comments to Breitbart on the need to end big tech's monopoly.

preitbart com/tech/2018/04/0 ..

Paul Joseph Watson
Editor at Large, InfoWars

"Facebook, Twitter and Google have established a virtual monopoly on social media. In terms of online expression, these outlets are the de facto Internet. Restricting people's access to these platforms based on their political beliefs is a human rights issue. Just as the phone company should not be able to disconnect you because of the content of your conversations, people should not be banned for their ideology, except in extreme circumstances, when laws are being broken.

We need to rally lawmakers to make holding big tech accountable one of their top priorities. We need to demand Google, Facebook and Twitter adhere to Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act, which dictates they remain non-partisan, or face losing their legal immunity for user content. We need transparency, we need an amnesty on all those who have been unfairly banned by big tech. This is one of the defining issues of our generation and we cannot afford to lose this battle."

This is another brazen attempt by CNN to shut down its competition.

Paul Joseph Watson Retweeted John Legend

At which point did Trump embrace "white supremacy"? Was it when he nominated first black woman to one of the highest military positions in the world? When he a announced a posthumous pardon for boxing's first black heavyweight champion? When he vowed to help the inner cities?

Paul Joseph Watson added,

John Legend Verified account @johnlegend
The defining trait of Trump's campaign and political profile was his embrace of white supremacy. He made it clear every time he spoke. Some serious cognitive dissonance to ignore that for the other x% you might find appealing. I guess I agree with >1% of anyone's thoughts though 3,000+ people in the UK are arrested every year for mean tweets.

People flying into London are banned because they have the wrong political opinions.

Comedians are arrested for jokes.

Most self-proclaimed "liberals" in the UK abandoned freedom of speech a long time ago.

OK, let's play the left's game here for a sec.

Stephen Colbert (white) & his team of writers (almost all white) using a platform owned by a 94-year-old white billionaire (Sumner Redstone) to lecture a black dude about how he should stay in his lane.

In the "hacked" homophobic posts on Joy Reid's blog, the word "feud" is misspelled "fued".

In Joy Reid's own tweets from 2010 and 2013, she also spells the word "fued".

Reid continues to deny she wrote the posts.

When did the left's opinion of African-Americans become so low that they automatically assume all black people should think the same and that those who don't should be ridiculed, demonized and smeared?

"POC".

Or in other words; Collectivize every single brown person on the planet into one hive mind that coincidentally reflects your political biases and then pretend you speak for them all to advance your own agenda.

Talk about bigotry of low expectations.

I don't normally complain I'm a small woman and some times I myself feel tight in the seat so I can't imagine an over weight person But you'd think an over weight person would also have compassion for the other woman's space that's she's taking up?

Having read the thread, I'm pretty pissed at how many times "white woman" was used. It wasn't a race issue, nor was it an assault. The fact she's encroaching the other persons chair is somehow everyone else's fault. It's 2018, wish people would catch up!

Why is this CNN reporter sniffing chemical weapons?

I'd be a little concerned about inhaling chemical weapons.

Also, how can she smell them when CNN itself reported that sarin was used in the attack? Sarin is odorless.

People keep complaining about violent crime in the UK, but I don't see anyone praising police for their ruthlessly efficient response times to playground insults.

Apologizes. Still loses a ton of sponsors & maybe her job.

David Hogg: 'Jokes' about mosquitoes killing "billions" of people, calls it a "great" thing.

Doesn't apologize. Doesn't even address it. No one cares.

Conservative pages have lost huge traffic since February compared to leftist pages that were not hit.

Zuckerberg denies.

Companies respond to "boycotts" for free advertising. It's quite monumentally mercenary.

> Matt Walsh @MattWalshBlog
> Why do companies freak out about "boycotts"? Nobody is actually boycotting anyone. There hasn't been a real boycott in this country since Montgomery. Do you think anyone is changing their consumption habits in accordance with the trendy new boycott of the week? No. It's all talk.

After the "Allahu Akbar" call to prayer was allowed in a mosque in Växjö, Muslims are now calling for it to be broadcast throughout the country.

The number of Muslims living in Sweden is approximately 810,000, or 8.1 per cent of the population.

Exactly! All these years women have fought for rights and equality, and those people want to take women back to the dark ages! If it happens it will be because it was allowed to happen They must be stopped!!!! If they don't want to assimilate, send them back to their homeland

Si les français ds leur intégralité n'étaient pas patriotes, Le Pen ne serait pas arrivée au 2nd tour, sans compter les électeurs de NDA & Fillon bp sont patriotes mais ne l'assument pas en public à cause des médias qui les culpabilisent. Merci de ne pas faire de généralité

The media is always fanning hysteria about "the rise of the Alt-Right".

Alt-Right leader Richard Spencer tried to raise $25,000 for legal fees.

After over 2 weeks, he has raised a pathetic $265.

The Alt-Right is a weak boogeyman given a platform by the left to smear the right.

If Trump called terrorists "animals" in the context of a discussion about ISIS and Islamic terrorism, would the media then claim he had called all Muslims "animals"?

Here's the video YouTube censored for being "offensive".

Apparently, it's OK for them to show people being massacred (allowing kids to see it) but having certain political opinions is not allowed.

It would be a shame if this got thousands of retweets.

Calling them animals is an insult to animals.

This week the media has defended Hamas terrorists and a murderous drug cartel whose members rape women and massacre children.

No wonder their credibility is in the toilet.

Jordan Peterson is trending because of a vicious NY Times hit piece.

I've lost count of the number of stories I've heard of young men turning around their lives because of his message.

The establishment will tear down anyone with influence who isn't under their control.

Jordan Peterson literally saved my life. I was living in squalor, it was some real Collier Brothers shit. I almost got crushed to death underneath an enormous pile of discarded Monster cans. Then I heard his glorious message "Clean your room" he said

Now I live in semi-squalor

Jordan Peterson has helped so many young people turn around their lives and rebuild relationships with loved ones.

What does it tell you about the mainstream media that they relentlessly and viciously attack this man every chance they get?

It would be unsettling to serve alongside a Muslim soldier I think.

You'd be thinking, "I wonder whether he's gonna turn that weapon on me."

I don't see how you could avoid having such doubts.

Kendrick Lamar is right.

People shouldn't be allowed to sing racial slurs if they're of a different race.

Except Kendrick in his song "Feel," where he calls white people "honkies" and "crackers".

It's OK when Kendrick does it.

Most "progressive" European countries think an invasion is an armed assault for immediate control They are already invaded Now all that needs to happen is for Muslims to outbreed the local population and assume increasing political control Most of Europe is already fucked

Liege terrorist shouted "Allahu Akbar" before killing 3.

Was radicalised in prison, known to be in contact with Islamic extremists & on a watch list.

Released from prison anyway, went on rampage the next day.
